Protecting Your Personal Health Information

What CIHC is doing to keep your information private

Your Personal Health Information

Managing your Personal Health Information (PHI) is necessary for us to provide the best possible care. At Choice in Health Clinic our information handling practices are a matter of public record and we have a Privacy Officer who has been appointed to ensure that your PHI is protected.

What exactly is PHI?

PHI is identifying information about you related to:

- Your physical or mental health;
- Providing healthcare to you (such as the fact that you have or had an appointment here);
- Your health card number; Your substitute decision maker (if you have one); and
- Any other information included in your health record

Use and Disclosure of Personal Health Information

We may use or share your PHI for the purposes of:

- Providing health care or assisting in the provision of care;
- Processing payments for your treatment and care (Private Insurance, IFH, UHIP, etc);
- Activities to improve the quality of care at CIHC (like chart audits);
- Research as approved by Research Ethics Boards;
- Teaching and education; Compiling statistics;
- As otherwise consent to by you; and
- To fulfill other purposes permitted or required by law.

Who has access to your Personal Health Information?

All authorized agents of Choice in Health Clinic and third parties that may access your information are contractually obligated to protect your information privacy on behalf of Choice In Health. Access may be provided to:

- Choice in Health Clinic's medical staff, employees, authorized contractors;
- Other health care facilities or services that may be providing you with care;
- The Ontario Ministry of Health and Long-Term Care and their designated agents; and
- A government-approved registry of personal health information that relates to a specific disease or condition (e.g Public Health).
